

Overview

A Masterpiece by Jacques Couelle Villa La Perla is a true work of art created by Jacques Couelle, the visionary architect who shaped the iconic style of Costa Smeralda. Clad in local stone, the villa blends effortlessly into the natural landscape, embodying a perfect balance of elegance, comfort, and Mediterranean authenticity. The bright and spacious interiors reflect Couelle's organic, sculptural approach. On the ground floor, three double bedrooms with private bathrooms offer privacy and comfort for guests. The first floor is dedicated to the master suite, featuring an exclusive panoramic terrace with breathtaking views—an intimate retreat of exceptional charm. The lower floor includes two additional guest bedrooms and a staff room, ensuring practicality, independence, and discretion for all occupants. In total, the villa offers 6 bedrooms plus 1 single staff room, making it an ideal residence for families or groups seeking privacy, style, and a timeless connection to the spirit of Costa Smeralda.
