

Overview

Set on the prestigious hill of Pantogia—just a five-minute drive from the Marina and the iconic Piazzetta—this exceptional villa offers the most breathtaking views over Porto Cervo and the shimmering Mediterranean Sea, with swift access to the renowned Pevero Beach. Designed by the celebrated architect Savin Cou lle, Villa Alma is masterfully integrated into its natural surroundings. Hidden within lush Mediterranean vegetation and embraced by the region’s spectacular pink granite formations, it blends authentic Sardinian character with contemporary sophistication. Inside, the villa features minimalist design and essential architectural lines, curated with meticulous attention to detail. The interiors combine refined simplicity with the latest in modern technology, creating a stylish and serene atmosphere. Villa Alma stands as one of Porto Cervo’s newest trendsetting retreats—a place where elegance, nature, and comfort come together seamlessly. Come and experience the true luxury of this remarkable villa.
